2014 Charity Golf Classic Raises $17,000

Community Living Essex County played host to the 24th Annual Charity Golf Classic at Fox Glen Golf Club in McGregor on Wednesday, July 16th. A field of 126 golfers, including representatives from municipalities from across Essex County enjoyed a fun day of golf and raised a total of $17,000 for Community Living Essex County in support of people with an intellectual disability and their families across Essex County.

Highlights of the annual best ball scramble tournament included both a live and silent auction and eighteen holes of golf were followed by a dinner reception where awards and prizes were presented to the participants.

Congratulations again to the winning team from the Town of LaSalle that included Mayor Ken Antaya, Town Councilor, Marc Bondy, Town of LaSalle Chief Administrative Officer Kevin Miller and Joe Milicia. For the fourth consecutive year, Team LaSalle beat out teams from the municipalities of Amherstburg, Leamington, Lakeshore and Kingsville, Essex and Tecumseh all vying for the coveted "Municipal Cup" and bragging rights for the municipality with the lowest overall team score.

The foursome of Chad Sutherland, Jogl Cort, Ryan Snelering and Jess Dixon had the best overall low gross team score shooting a 58. The mixed team champions were from Libro Credit Union and included Steve Cox, Dannie Quinlan, Wassim Sarweh and John Dagnole. The winners of the Men's and Ladies' Longest Drive Contest were Chris Glenright and Dannie Quinlan The Closet to the Pin Contest winners were Mary Lou Henderson for the Ladies' and Tony DiCiocco for the Men.

Community Living Essex County wishes to thank the many area businesses and organizations throughout Essex County for their generosity in donating prizes for the participants and for serving as lead, sign, and hole and dinner sponsors for the event. As well, thanks to all of the staff and volunteers who worked hard to ensure another successful event. See you in July 2015 as we celebrate our 25th Anniversary!
